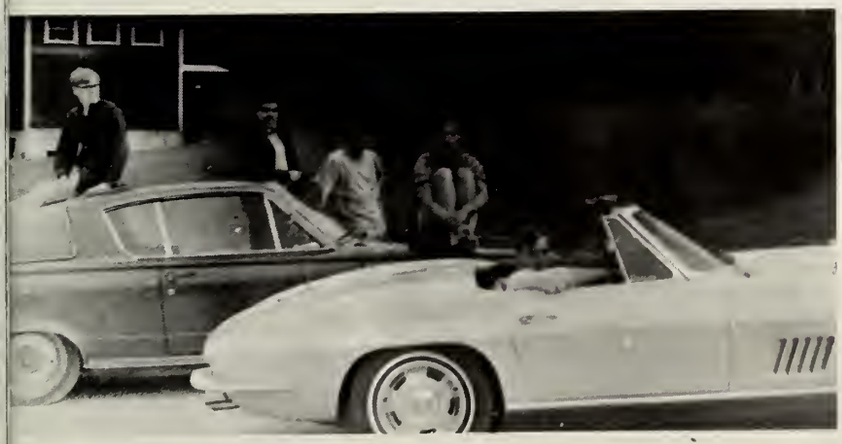
GOLDBUG SUPPLEMENT
Spring 1967

Despite disabilities brought about by old age, the sprite class of '67 fought their way to another victory, winning a total of 200 points at Field Day, June 2, 1967. A surprisingly strong sophomore class finished second with 104, followed by the juniors with 57 and the freshmen with 36. An earlier Field Day event was the sports car marathon held in New Hampshire for seniors only.



Although it is harder to succeed in show business than in corporate business, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying was a smashing success at ARHS this spring. The cast, with Mr. John Packard, dramatic director, and Mr. John Maggs, music director, packed the auditorium for a three-day run, April 6-8.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL; Front row: T. Lockhart, B. Peters, M. Ziomek, R. Tudryn, C. Bray, J. Dempsey. Second row: J. Main, L. Olanyk, S. Howards, J. Ball, L. Kellogg. Third row: Coach O'Donnell, Manager P. Greenfield, K. Chickering.

Although Frontier stole the Hampshire League title from the Amherst boys, they retained a strong second place with 11 wins and 14 losses. With seasoned players as well as other talented newcomers the lookout for next season shows a truly fine club. Credit goes to ace hurler Bill Clark for winning his 21st and final game, thus tying the ARHS record.

The boys' track team had their usual successful year with a record of 8-1.

First row: M. Howard, N. Hankinson, S. Berger, Coach Miller, M. Woodard, J. Ezbicki, L. Marx. Second row: B. Field, L. Cambell, C. Cramer, N. Bias, B. Wagner, C. Cobb. Third row: E. Stosz, M. Burroughs, V. Jacob, N. Gage, K. Harvey. Fourth row: K. Sullivan, W. Cramer.

The fast girls' track team was hard on the heels of the boys' track success with no losses at their own three meets and their first place in the state meet.

First row: A. Cutting, T. DeMott, E. Cutting, Capt. B. Serues Second row: T. Morgan, C. Kopinto, G. Oberlander Third row: P. Arons, J. Payton Fourth row: G. Balsley Fifth row: T. Plimpton, L. Weeks Sixth row: Coach Judson

The varsity tennis team had a racket going under the coaching of Mr. Paul Judson. They ended a smashing season with a net total of 11-4.

The gutty girls' tennis team courted a winning season with a 2-0 record in its first year.

Coach Fortes, S. Dickinson, L. Budde, S. Oliver, K. Freisem, J. Day, L. Ludtke, B. Dorman, M. Ludtke, K. Grady, H. MacConnell

First row: D. Wood, D. Campbell, S. Berger, N. Jenks, B. Stosz. Second row: M. Stanne, J. Stowell, L. Campbell, M. Woodard, K. Tidlund, D. Lee, B. Hilton. Third row: E. Spear, D. Clark, S. Bunn, C. Wisnieski, J. Bunn, R. Waldn. Fourth row: G. Markert, P. McLaughlin, N. Hankinson, B. Stosz, D. Kolasienski, J. Grady, R. Birney.

The girls' softball team came back at the end of a difficult season to defeat arch rival Frontier for the first time in eight years. Nineteen out of twenty-four girls will return next year to better this year's record of 3-9.

First row: B. Harrington, J. Tilley, J. Marden, S. Gluckstern, D. Vlach, J. Harrington. Second row: Coach Stamos, J. Maki, P. Knihnicki, S. Barrett, J. Connelly, D. Fennessey.

The golf team swung its way through its first year at ARHS. Their record of 0-7 leaves them rather teed off, and a first rate effort will be made to bring it up to par next season.

Penny Demarest, Queen of the Senior Prom, poses with her court as Mr. Langlois crowns her. The court includes Colleen McGuirk, Diane Drew, Ann Eiben, and Kathy Brandfass.

"Some Enchanted Evening" offered a South Seas evening to all, thanks to the efforts of the Junior Class. Music was provided by Al Acorn and his orchestra, with guest appearances of Steve Gluckstern and Len Ezbicki.

On CLASS NIGHT, June 6, Frank Cushman presented the senior class gift to adviser Mr. Leland.

The Goldbug was dedicated to Mrs. Langford and copies were then distributed. Other events were the reading of the class will and prophecy and the showing of the class movie.

The SENIOR CLASS PICNIC was held in Orange. By all appearances, those concerned had a barrel of fun.

Where is a Latin dictionary?
I need a nineteenth century English novel for a book review.
Where can I find out about fluid dynamics?
Will you help me operate the teaching machine?

These varied requests and others are met daily by Mrs. Naomi Langford. Mrs. Langford through her unique attention to every student concern has created an atmosphere in the library both pleasantly relaxed and intellectually alive. Her sincere generosity, unfailing cheerfulness and patient guidance have made her a friend to all, and this personal rapport has not been lost in the rising enrollment from five hundred to over eight hundred. We, the class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Naomi Langford, our school librarian, for her contributions not only to our class but to the entire school.

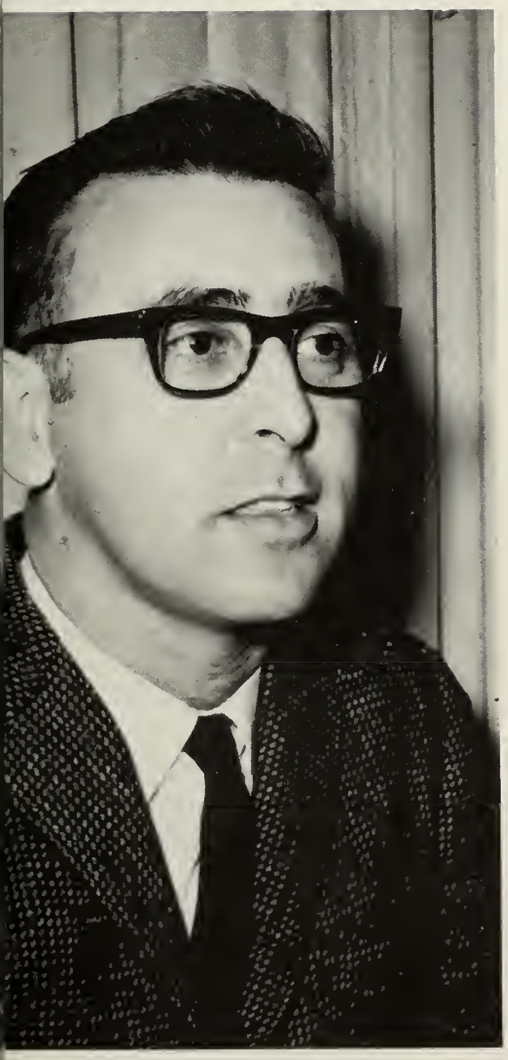
SENIORS

MR. ARTHUR LELAND



MR. KENNETH CAOUETTE

The Class of 1967 expresses great appreciation to Mr. Arthur Leland and Mr. Kenneth Caouette. Through the guidance of these advisers our class has enjoyed success in many projects, including the junior cake sale, the paper drive, and our many floats and class skits. With their support we were the first class to have a senior dinner dance. In gratitude for the many hours they have spent helping our class, we thank Mr. Leland and Mr. Caouette.

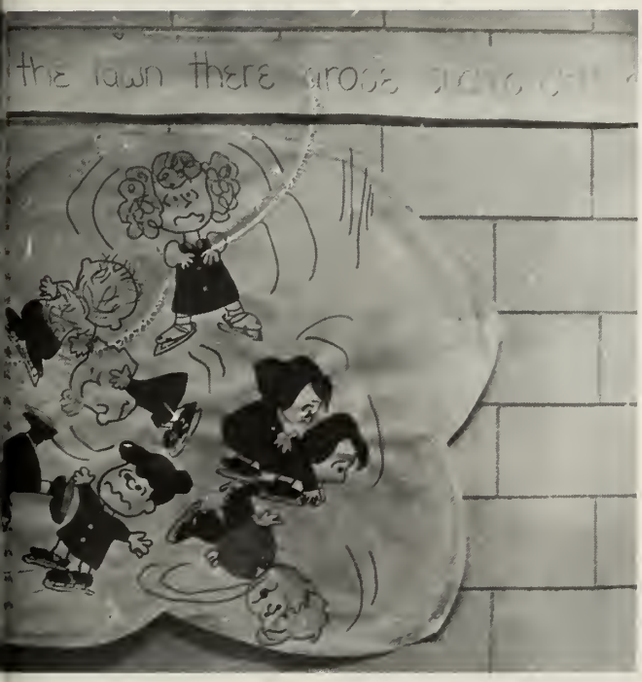
Kielbasa, L. Marx, C. Allen, J. Ball, F. Cushman, C. Bray; Third row: P. Paradis, S. Woodward, E. Bleckwehl, L. Small, B. Fitzpatrick, M. Modrzakowski, J. Webb, B. Taylor, C. Demarest.



Below the Tiajuana Trash play, while above with whipped cream and other delights the seniors enact a brawl at the Dodge City Saloon in the No-Talent Show.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was led by Ed Stoddard, President; Art Seaver, Vice-President; Anne Moreau, Secretary; and Diane Drew, Treasurer. For the first time Student Council representatives were elected from every homeroom. Under the advisership of Mr. Paul Caouette, the Council sponsored many activities including a dance, the hall decoration contest at Christmas, Field Day, the No-Talent Show and various assemblies.

In Tennessee Williams' "The Case of the Crushed Petunias," were Lyn Singer and Kitty Warner.

Ellen Agard, Jim Langford, and Nick Williams comprised the cast of Chekov's "The Marriage Proposal."

THESPIANS

This year Thespian Troupe 1333 encouraged further interest in the dramatic arts at A.R.H.S. In the fall, they broke the tradition of a single production and presented "An Evening of One-Acts," including three short one-act plays. Since they were winners in last year's New England drama competition, they helped to host the Boston play festival in March. The spring production was the highly successful Broadway musical, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Mrs. Katy Stone continued as the troupe's adviser. Officers were: Chris Savereid, President; Ken Arons, Vice-President; Anita Bennett, Secretary; and Kathy Dittfach, Treasurer.

James Barrie's mystery, "Shall We Join the Ladies," rounded out the evening of one-acts.

Front row, from left: A. Eiben, C. Peters, C. Savereid, President, K. Arons, Vice-President, A. Bennett, Secretary, K. Dittfach, Treasurer, J. Paulsen, A. Marcus, M. Stockwell, D. Drew; Second row: Advisers Mr. Packard and Mrs. Stone, S. Woodard, T. McCabe, S. Stoddard, B. Metcalf, P. Feldman, N. Williams, M. Rice, L. deSherbinin.

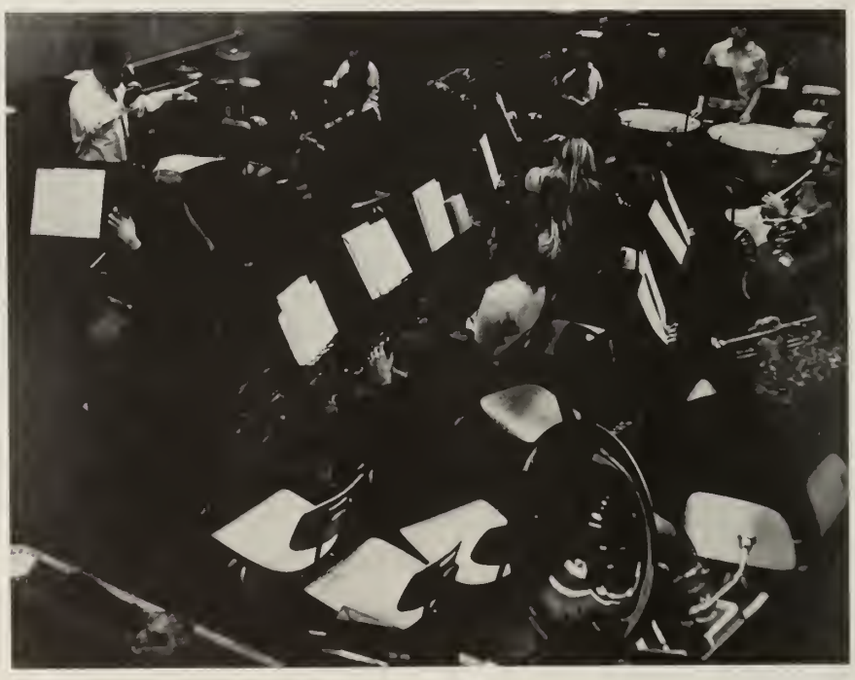
BAND AND ORCHESTRA

Members of the orchestra, directed by Mr. John Maggs, enthusiastically prepared for the Christmas concert where they not only performed alone, but also accompanied the chorus. During the remaining portion of the year, they began rehearsing for appearances in the spring concert and graduation. Three members were chosen to participate in the Western Mass. District Concert: Sara Dickinson, viola; Margie Rice, cello; and Barbara Wagner, oboe. Sara Dickinson was also chosen to represent Amherst in the All-State Concert.

After having shown musical spirit at the first pep assembly and at football games, the band, also directed by Mr. Maggs, began to rehearse for its February concert and later in the year for the spring concert. Three members participated in the Western Mass. District Concert; Laura deSherbinin, flute; Jacky Grady, clarinet; and Kathy Grady, flute.



The orchestra practiced evenings in addition to several periods a week.

CHORUS

The Chorus, under the direction of Mr. John Maggs, presented both a school assembly and a public concert during the Christmas season. They then began preparation for a spring concert and graduation exercises. Several members participated in the Western Mass. District Chorus held at Amherst this year. In February Anne Moreau and Ann Eiben represented Amherst in the All-State Concert in Boston.

The band poses just prior to the first annual February concert.

Members of the senior section staff are, from left: S. Simmons, editors: K. Arons, and B. Rollason; Second row H. Robert, B. Chickering, G. Oberlander, and R. Rhodes.

Holly Bastow leads a meeting of Pep Club, which is composed of representatives from each class.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club was successful in promoting much enthusiasm and good sportsmanship this year through the many activities it sponsored. These included pep rallies, dances after the games, chartering pep buses to away football and basketball games, and selling shakers at football games. The club also sponsored the annual Booster Day activities. Mrs. Marjorie Day served as advisser, and officers were: Holly Bastow, President; Kathy Brandfass, Vice-president; Betsy Dorman, Secretary; and Janice Stowell, Treasurer.

As usual the Senior Class float won the Booster Day float competition.

The court at the Tri-S formal included: Holly Bastow, Diane Drew, Noli Bias, Anne Moreau, queen, Ann Eiben, Colleen McGuirk, and Donna Mellen.

TRI-S

Advised by Miss Betty Lawson and Mrs. Marjorie Day, the Tri-S Club again demonstrated its meaning of Service, Sportsmanship and Scholarship. Under the leadership of Anne Moreau, President; Cynthia Conway, Vice-president; Colleen McGuirk, Secretary; and Judy Knowles, Treasurer; Tri-S members sold UNICEF Christmas cards and collected used clothing. The traditional Tri-S formal was held at the Lord Jeffrey Inn on December 17. The girls also sponsored a float in the Booster Day parade and held a successful bake sale.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Robert Frost Chapter of the National Honor Society honors students who have achieved highly in Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. During the year it sponsored a tutoring service for students requesting help in academic subjects. It also earned money for a scholarship program. In April juniors and seniors who had achieved the high standards set by the society were inducted into the group by its officers: Roger Rhodes, President; Ellen Agard, Vice-President; Anita Bennett, Secretary; and Edward Stoddard, Treasurer. Miss Betty Donley served as adviser.

Members of the art club work on individual projects under the direction of club adviser Mr. Packard.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, under the supervision of Mr. John Packard, promotes interest in all phases of art. In December, club members, led by Mary Beth Stanne, President; and Cynthia May, Secretary-Treasurer; held a bazaar, the proceeds of which were used to buy materials and finance a trip to New York City. Club members also exhibited many items of their own work throughout the school.

AFS students Felipe Camino and Tuhin Das are introduced to Mrs. Nawar and Mrs. Day by Margie Rice at an AFS Club reception.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE CLUB

The AFS club was fortunate to be able to sponsor the exchange of two foreign students this year, Tuhin Das from Calcutta, India, and Felipe Camino from Lima, Peru. In order to alleviate the expenses of their visits and to acquaint them with the student body, the club held several fund raising and social activities, including a dance, a bake sale, a picnic to Mt. Sugarloaf, and a fair booth. Assemblies were held at which the students showed slides and talked about life in their home countries. Margie Rice, President, who visited Gaziantep, Turkey last summer also presented an assembly program. Other officers included: Tuhin Das and Filipe Camino, Vice-Presidents; Sue Freisem, Secretary; and Chris Allen, Treasurer. Mr. Ames served as adviser.

GRAPHIC

After much debate, the staff of the Graphic, headed by editor-in-chief Kathy Grady and advised by Miss Dorothy Furgeson, finally decided to incorporate the Graphic into the Amherst Record. This means of production, while cutting costs greatly, also enables the staff to publish more frequently. The Graphic appeared in the Amherst Record every second or third week and was read not only by students, but by much of the adult population in Amherst.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Teachers Club offers students interested in teaching a chance to find out more about this field and to acquaint themselves with teaching methods and principles. Under the supervision of Miss Charlotte Halpin, club members, led by Heidi Markert, President; Janice Stowell, Vice-president; and Gail Thornton, Secretary – invited many speakers to their meetings and visited neighboring schools, including Mark's Meadow Elementary School in North Amherst.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America, under the supervision of Mrs. Marion Wilson and Mrs. Marjorie Day, is dedicated to promote student interest in home economics. Club members – led by Brenda Stoddard, President; Peggy Ahearn, Vice-President; Gladys Stone, Secretary; and Ellen Wade, Treasurer – served as color guard in the Booster Day parade, conducted a food sale and tea, and went to State meetings in New Salem and Framingham. Peggy Ahearn was chosen this year to be State Parliamentarian, and Arlene Ashby to be the club's delegate to the national convention in St. Louis.

The Future Homemakers plan activities.

Club members listen to a guest speaker.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Under the guidance of Mrs. Mary McDonald and Miss Judith Gagne, the Future Nurses Club planned many activities this year to prepare for a future in nursing. Club members – led by Martha Woodard, President; Martha Burroughs, Vice-President; Donna Wood, Secretary; and Patty Gwotz, Treasurer – went to Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, worked in the Well Child Clinic at the town hall, visited the Boston Children's Hospital, and assisted in school clinics. The trips were financed by several food sales thoughout the year.

FORENSICS CLUB

One of the newest organizations in the high school, the Forensics Club has already established its reputation as a top team in New England. Tournaments where Amherst has placed highly include those sponsored by Dartmouth College, the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts, and Melrose, Shrewsbury, and Quincy High Schools, and the preliminaries at Westfield State College, where Amherst entered contestants to compete in the categories of debate, extemporaneous speaking, news broadcasting, and prose and poetry readings. The officers included Anita Bennett, President; Steve Gluckstern, Vice-President; and Skip Stoddard, Secretary. Mrs. Matlon was the club's coach.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, under the leadership of Mr. Paul Judson, promoted much enthusiasm for for chess this year. Players could be seen in rapt concentration over chess boards at student patrol desks and in free rooms during school, as well as in Mr. Judson's room after school. Club members also competed with players from other schools, including Easthampton, Minnechaug, Academy. William A. Doubleday served as secretary this year.

"AS SCHOOLS MATCH WITS"

This year Amherst's "As Schools Match Wits" team, advised by Mr. Laurel Crouse, consisted of veteran members of last year's team and one new member, Hubert Robert. The all-boy team had a very successful beginning, qualifying for the semi-finals with four straight wins. However, in the semi-finals they lost to Tantasqua, this year's champions, by a heartbreaking fifteen points in the last few seconds of the game.

MODEL CONGRESS

Members of the Model Congress — under the leadership of Mr. William Ames, adviser; and Steven Marcus, President — study parliamentary procedure and the activities of the United States Congress, as well as discussing possible bills to be submitted at the Model Congress Convention at American International College in Springfield. This year the four members who were selected to represent Amherst Regional at this convention submitted a bill proposed by William A. Doubleday.

From left: D. Anthony, S. Osborn, S. Marcus, W. Doubleday, D. Lee, Mr. Ames.

The Ski Club enjoyed a weekend at Stowe, Vt.

At Stowe, off-the-slope hours were spent in companionship in the lodge.

SKI CLUB

Led by Roger Rhodes, President; Eric Cutting, Vice-President; Sandy Shea, Secretary; and Phil Paradis, Treasurer; the Ski Club this year sponsored Wednesday night trips to Mt. Tom and a three-day trip to Stowe, Vt., during February vacation. Under the advisership of Mrs. Marjorie Day and Mr. David Hartwell, the club sponsored a dance – Mogul Hop II – on December 28 to raise money for their trip. As a result of their enthusiasm a ski team was formed this year.

The Rod and Gun Club prepares for a field trip.

Outing Club members head down Little Haystack on a New Hampshire hiking trip.

OUTING CLUB

Many students showed enthusiasm and interest in Amherst Regional's Outing Club this year. Advised by Mr. Camp and Mr. Morley, the club held many caving, back-packing, and hiking trips. These trips included a weekend stay at the White Mountains and day hikes at the Quabbin Reservoir and the Holyoke Range. The club planned more day hikes and mountain trips for the remainder of the year.

ROD AND GUN CLUB

The Rod and Gun Club, advised by Mr. Moore, served to promote better sportsmanship, gun safety, and conservation. At the weekly meetings under the direction of Jeff Ferguson, President; and Kenneth Kosakowski, Secretary-Treasurer; the club viewed films pertaining to fish and game and listened to safety and conservation lectures. Special field trips included an ice fishing trip and cookout, a spring fishing trip, and a spring banquet.

Three Rod and Gun Club members proudly view their catch on an ice fishing trip.

SSEO

The Student Stock Exchange Organization consists of members of the Modern Problems classes and is advised by Mr. Paul Caouette. The club, which familiarizes students with the operation of the stock market and the nature of investments, held meetings periodically throughout the year, led by officers: James Ricci, President; Steve Woodard, Vice-President; Marjorie Stockwell, Secretary; and Nancy Kelley, Secretary-Treasurer.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

The Audio-Visual Club, under the directorship of Mr. Bruce Oldershaw, was formed to help faculty members set up and run audio-visual aids, and to familiarize its members with the use and maintenance of the machines. The club sponsored a dance, ran a concession stand during home basketball games, and made plans for visiting a television station in the area. The officers this year were Ken Arons, President; and Sam Skillings, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Bruce Oldershaw explains the operation of a projector to: R. Markert, M. Richason, N. Proctor, A. Hart, S. Skillings, D. Anderson, and K. Arons.

STUDENT PATROL

Under the supervision of Mr. Francis Gallishaw, the Student Patrol, led by co-captains Bob Fitzpatrick and Phil Paradis, continued to keep the school neat and the corridors orderly. This organization consists of senior volunteers who are assigned to various posts around the school.

Members spent their free periods at assigned posts.

CHEERLEADERS

The Cheerleaders, varsity and junior varsity, are chosen each year by representatives of the faculty and student body. They drill regularly, perfecting old cheers and creating new ones. The Cheerleaders stimulate spirit and enthusiasm at school games and pep rallies. Mrs. Octavia Miller advised both cheering squads this year.

From left: D. Mellen, K. Foley, N. Gage, C. Cramer, D. Schnarr, M. Mitchell, S. Smith, S. Shea.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1966 varsity football team, after a discouraging opening streak of five consecutive losses, regained its poise to decisively win the last three games and finish fifth in the league. The team showed renewed spirit at the end of the season, raising hopes for a much improved season next year. Congratulations are due to Bill Clark and Len Ezbicki whose outstanding play throughout the season earned them all-league recognition, and to Coaches Abramson, Kneeland, and Hastings, under whose direction the team was able to finish with a respectable record.

SKI TEAM

Increased interest in skiing among ARHS students led to the formation of a ski team, which met this year in competition with other area schools. The team finished its season with a record of nine wins and twelve losses, a creditable showing for its first year. In the final meet at Cummington, Arthur Cutting placed third in a group of sixty-five.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The 1966 cross-country squad exhibited once again the fine team spirit which earned them a first place finish in the league. The momentum of an undefeated season and the individual efforts of Norm Page and Dave Eiben carried the team to a second place in the Western Mass. meet.

SOCCER TEAM

In its first year as an official league member, the varsity soccer team demonstrated its ability and enthusiasm by setting a league record for the most wins by a first year team. The games that were lost had close scores, providing an exciting season for spectators and players alike. Coach John Adams spurred his team to fine individual performances, including that of Ron Lashway, who earned a spot on the all-league team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1966-67 varsity basketball team, though they won only five games, provided an exciting season for all Hurricane fans. Under the direction of Coach Kneeland, they performed well, with many of the games lost by only a few points.

1966 BASEBALL

Led by captain Tom Osborne, the 1966 varsity baseball team led the Hampshire League with thirteen wins and one loss. Fine team effort salvaged many games which at first seemed likely to be lost. Pitcher Bill Clark was named to the All-Western Massachusetts squad and prospects are again high for this season.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year Amherst girls were offered a new sport, field hockey, coached by Miss Ann Mathieson. About twenty girls tried out for the team in the fall. Under the leadership of captain Marsha Howard, the team had a fairly respectable record of one win, one tie, and two losses.

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team was once again victorious at the annual Playday Tournament. Coached by Miss Betty Lawson, the varsity team took first place, and the second team took fourth. Three of Amherst's girls made the all-star team: Sue Berger, Judi Knowles, and Sue Kzcowski. Before the tournament Amherst beat Pioneer and Hopkins in interschool volleyball meets.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

The girls' varsity basketball season got off to a poor start, but an improving team won three of their last five games to end with a four-and-eight record. The team had trouble finding the basket, as they averaged only 25.2 points per game. Marcia Howard led the scorers with 87 points, while the other forwards contributed 137 points. The defense held the opponents to an average of 31 points while scoring 67 points.

One two-point loss marred the Junior Varsity's record as they compiled an 11-1 record. Led by Judith Knowles and Jacky Grady, they outscored their opponents 328 to 168.
